HOW MANY CAN YOU NAME - TEACHER'S NOTES

The aim of the activity is to revise the vocabulary that ss already know and learn a few new ones. T can use it as a warm-up activity or a filler to animate the class. T tells the ss that they will have to name the things they will see when T moves the mouse around the page.

The set also includes the wordlists, both as a separate page in the presentation and as a pdf format. You can use them to mark which words the ss have named.

GROUP VERSION 1

* T divides ss into groups and then tells them to name each thing they can see. T moves the mouse cursor around the page, the ss shout the names of the things. T assigns points for every correct word. The group who names the most wins.

GROUP VERSION 2

* T divides ss into groups and tells them to write down all the names they know. When T is done, ss read all the words loud and T assigns points.

INDIVIDUAL ACTIVITY

* T asks each ss individually to write the names of the words. After the activity is finished T reads the words out loud and ss tick each one they have written down.

INDIVIDUAL ACTIVITY

* T can assign time limit for the activity to make the game more competitive. This option starts when you click TIMER.

Feel free to adopt the activities to suit your needs. Have fun!
